

SPILL THINK TANK

ADDRESS:

SPILL Think Tank
High Street
Ipswich
IP1 3QH

WHAT TO EXPECT

The Think Tank is located between the Ipswich Museum and the Ipswich Art Gallery, set back from High Street and accessed by a short path.

If there is an event on there will be signs.

The Think Tank has step-free access to all spaces.

If someone is coming to see us in the office they should enter through the first door.

If you are coming to an event by SPILL you will be signposted to the second door.

There is a shallow ramp through the second door.

There is also a ramp with double doors out to the car park at the rear of the building.

For ticketed events a SPILL volunteer or staff member will scan the QR code on your ticket.

Step free access to all rooms can be accessed via a shared corridor.

There are steps from room to room.

These are marked with bright white tape.

The Think Tank room.

The Think Tank has wooden floors and high ceilings with roof lights.

At certain events soft and alcoholic drinks will be available from our small bar.

Male and female toilets are down the corridor, please follow the signs.

For the accessible toilets please speak to a member of staff.

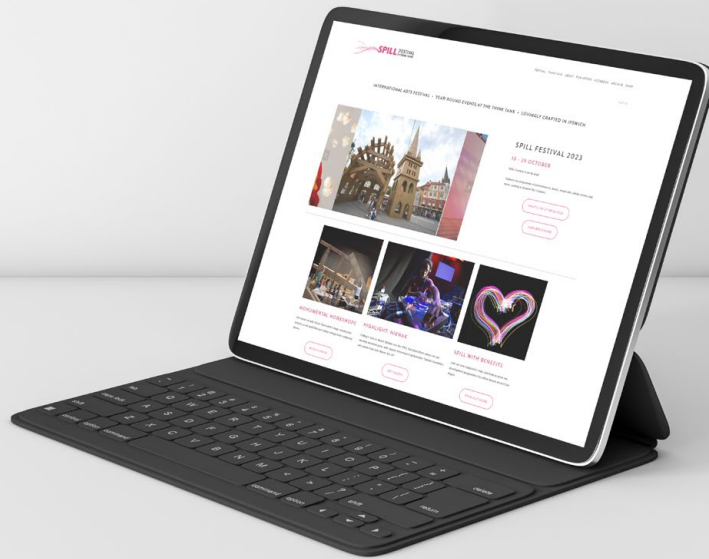

The accessible toilet is in the building next door, (Ipswich Art Gallery) which is about 30 metres up the street.

A member of the SPILL team will help you to find your way.

If you have any queries or wish to visit the space in advance of one of our events, please e-mail: info@spillfestival.com or call 01473 216 545.
